

What is on at Westroyd?

15th September 2023

What another great week at Westroyd! Today we did our first Celebration Assembly of the school year and I was so proud to present the awards to our fantastic role models. We are slightly changing the way we run celebration assembly. Parents will still have the opportunity to attend but this will now be for a very exciting new award at the end of each half term.

We are thrilled that after school clubs can begin next week, see below for more information. You will have been informed if your child is attending. Can you believe we still have lots of spaces available in our clubs?! Please look on SchoolComms to book your child's place. The cost is £30 which works out at just £2.30 per week!
