

What is on at Westroyd?

24th January 2025

Another busy week at Westroyd. We had a literacy specialist join us this week to support with our phonics teaching. We get specific support for our different groups of children of how to make our teaching even better! The children across Reception and KS1 were amazing and they are making great progress. To continue to support parents our next workshop all about reading books is on 30th January, please book on via Arbor. This week we say goodbye to 2 members of staff. Mrs Dada our Year 6 TA and Miss Wilson our Nursery teacher, they both have new opportunities they are moving onto, we thank them for all their hard work and wish them all the best. Miss Elsworth will be supporting Y6 and we welcome back Miss Harps from maternity leave who will be in Nursery at the end of the week, as well as some time in Reception, Year 1 and Year 4. Some classes have taken part in skipping school this week and the staff were blown away by how amazing our children were. Year 4 have been doing some brilliant multiplication in maths whilst Year 3 have been really enjoying history lessons.
