

WHAT IS ON AT WESTROYD?

24TH OCTOBER 2025

We have finally come to the end of the half term! The children have got off to such a strong start across school and we are very proud of them! Staff are looking forward to sharing all their achievements and targets for the year in our parents evenings that are being held on 11th and 12th November. Please book through Arbor or the office staff will be happy to help. This week Year 4 pupils took part in the Farsley community art project making lanterns for this years festival! On Thursday the children had the best time ever at our Halloween disco! Some great costumes and dance moves! Year 3 had a brilliant day at Stump Cross Caverns on Thursday too and Year 6 went to the Media museum on Wednesday. Ending on a high today with Recognition Assembly, celebrating those pupils who have been stand out! A reminder school & Nursery is closed for the week commencing 27th October. Below you will find some information of where kids eat free or for £1 during half term. We hope you have a happy and safe half term. See you on 3rd November.
