Proud to be Me, Proud to be Westroyd, Proud to be Farsley

Dear Parents and Carers,

At Westroyd, we love to bring learning to life through exciting and imaginative experiences. Next half term, our new writing topic will be inspired by The Worst Witch by Jill Murphy, a much-loved story full of magic, mischief and marvellous characters. Through this text, children will develop their creative writing skills while exploring the adventures of Mildred Hubble at Miss Cackle's Academy.

To launch the topic, our first lesson will take place on Wednesday 5th November, where the children will be invited to attend Miss Cackle's Academy for Witches. To help set the scene, all pupils will be provided with a witch's cape and hat to wear during the session.

If your child already owns a witch or wizard costume and would prefer to wear their own, please feel free to send it in on the day in a labelled bag so that they can change into it for the lesson.

We are looking forward to a magical start to this exciting writing journey!

Thank you for your continued support.

Warm regards,

Mr Popple and Miss Martin
