Proud to be Me, Proud to be Westroyd, Proud to be Farsley

Dear Parents/Carers,

At Westroyd, we are excited to be taking part in Odd Socks Day on Monday 10th November as part of Anti-Bullying Week. This fun event is a chance for us to celebrate that we are all unique.

To join in, we're inviting children to wear odd socks to school on the day. It's a fun and easy way to express individuality and spread the important message that everyone should feel free to be themselves. There's no need to buy anything special, just wear mismatched socks!

Andy Day (from CBeebies/CBBC) and his band Andy and the Odd Socks are supporting the event again this year, alongside the Anti-Bullying Alliance. You might want to check out their uplifting song 'Power for Good', which was recorded specially for Anti-Bullying Week.

Here's how you can help:

1. Make sure your child wears odd socks to school on Monday 10th November.
2. If you'd like, share a photo or video online - you can even add the "Power for Good" song! Tag us using #OddSocksDay, #AntiBullyingWeek, and tag @ABAonline on X (Twitter) or @AntiBullyingAlliance and @AndyandtheOddSocks on Instagram. Don't forget to tag @farsleywestroyd too!

Thank you for your support, we're looking forward to seeing lots of colourful and creative odd socks in school!

Kind regards,

Miss Martin
