

Desired Outcomes

All statutory outcomes will be met.

All staff will feel empowered and able to deliver well-planned lessons that meet individual needs.

The school community will have a common understanding of identification of need and what outstanding provision looks like.

All children with SEN will make good and better progress from their starting points and will achieve as well as their peers nationally.

All children will thrive in a school environment which is supportive, holistic and positive, being fully prepared for transition into the next stage of their lives.

Parents will feel supported, reporting that they are happy with provision and the way their child is cared for.

Leaders will have a full and thorough understanding of SEN at Westroyd and demonstrate a clear vision for the future.
